Alcohol, Gambling and Tobacco Commission discussion: 3/2/11 Scott Keenan, Executive Director, was present on behalf of the application. Mr. Keenan reviewed that this application is for the tent in the parking lot between Grandma's and the DeWitt-Seitz building in Canal Park, and that they will be serving beer and wine Friday and Saturday nights during the marathon with the music and serving ending at 1:00 a.m. and the tent emptied by 2:00 a.m. He further noted that they will be hiring 12 off duty police officers, and that during the day Saturday individual 21 years of age are stamped, but in the evening no one under 21 is allowed into the tent. The clerk reviewed that in addition to this application, a special events permit is secured by this applicant, and the council passes a resolution waiving the drinking in public prohibition. There being no further discussion, Mr. Birchland moved that THE APPLICATION OF GRANDMA'S MARATHON - DULUTH, INC, CANAL PARK DRIVE AND BUCHANAN ST, FOR A TEMPORARY ON SALE INTOXICATING LIQUOR LICENSE FOR JUNE 17-19, 2011, WITH SCOTT KEENAN, MANAGER, BE APPROVED, AND THE SAME BE RECOMMENDED TO THE CITY COUNCIL FOR APPROVAL. Mr. Donahue seconded the motion, and it was unanimously approved.
