BY: DPD Public Information Officer Jim Hansen (218) 390-2232

On Saturday, February 16th, 2013 at 7:47 PM Duluth Police were called to the 1600 block of East 5th Street on a burglary that just occurred. The caller said a suspect entered his house with a flashlight while he was in bed and stole a snowboard and electronic equipment.

Initial investigation revealed that the suspect was Cody Walker-Nelson, a 21 year old resident of Duluth. Walker-Nelson has a relative that lived two houses away from the victim and he was last seen going into that relative's house.

On Tuesday, February 19th, 2013 Duluth Police Officers located Cody Walker-Nelson at his relative's house in the 1600 block of East 5th Street and he was arrested for 1st Degree Burglary and transported to the Saint Louis County Jail pending formal charges.

Cody Walker-Nelson has the following convictions:

2009 - 3rd Degree Arson

2011 - 5th Degree Domestic Assault

2011 – Disorderly Conduct

If anyone has any information about this incident they are asked to contact the Duluth Police Property Crimes Unit at (218) 730-5160. This is an active investigation. No further information is available at this time.
