Duluth Parks and Recreation announces summer programs

[Duluth, MN] The City of Duluth Parks and Recreation division is excited to launch its summer program brochure. The brochure is full of recreation activities for all ages, located in parks, community centers, and trails throughout the city. These program offerings range from summer day camp for youth to 55+ programs, community events, mobile recreation, introductory outdoor experiences, and more!

Programs take place May – August, for more information, visit our digital program brochure or program registration page for more detailed information: https://duluthmn.gov/media/13042/web-export_parks-brochure-summer-2022.pdf.
