SUBJECT: Duluth Man Arrested on Three Counts of Sale of a Controlled Substance

BY: Officer Brad Wick, Information Officer

On Thursday, October 28, 2010, at 11:17 AM, Duluth Police and the Lake Superior Drug and Gang Task Force arrested Tyrell Martell Beckom, age 26 of Duluth. Beckom was arrested on three counts of Fifth Degree Sale of a Controlled Substance for selling marijuana and one count of Child Endangerment.

Beckom was taken to the St. Louis County Jail where he is currently being held. At the time of his arrest, Beckom was on federal parole for Sale of Cocaine. This current arrest stemmed from an investigation into Beckom's continued involvement in the sale of controlled substances.
