SUBJECT: Crime Free Multi-Housing Training
BY: DPD Public Information Officer, Jim Hansen

The Duluth Police Department is hosting its first Crime Free Multi Housing (CFMH) Landlord Training Session of 2011. This training is for landlords and property managers in the City of Duluth and provides a partnership between police, property owners/managers and residents to foster a safe, healthy and crime free community in rental housing.

The training is Tuesday, January 18th, 2011 at the West Police Station Training Room, 5830 Grand Ave. Interested landlords and property managers can sign up at the day of the training. Registration is from 8:00am-9:00am. The training is scheduled from 9:00am-4:00pm. The $50 registration fee includes lunch and a training manual.

Those interested in attending or wanting more information can contact Debbie Isabell Nelson of Neighborhood Housing Services at (218) 260-8045 or e-mail her at dnelson@nhsduluth.org. The registration form can also be found on the City of Duluth's main web page, www.duluthmn.gov under the Crime Free Multi Housing tab, or here.

The Duluth Police Department wants to encourage all landlords and property owners to attend the training. The partnerships formed in the previous trainings have proven successful for landlords and property owners to work together with Police on rental property issues.

The training is sponsored by: Neighborhood Housing Services-Duluth; NeighborWorks America; Duluth LISC; and the Duluth Police Department.
