Theft and Property Damage

The Duluth Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in identifying the individuals involved in a recent string of theft and damage to property incidents. The suspects have damaged coin operated laundry machines at businesses in the 1300 block of East 1st Street, the 800 block of East 4th Street, and the 800 block of Partridge Street in Duluth. There have also been several similar incidents in the past few months.

The suspects are described as:

- White Male with red or strawberry blonde hair, wearing a green digital camouflage jacket, dark colored baseball hat, and black cargo pants.
- White female with long hair wearing a blue denim jacket with logo on back (possibly Rivera).

If you know who these individuals are or have any information regarding the suspects or these incidents, you are asked to call 911 or Investigator Bill Eickhoff at (218) 730-5604.
