Ona Filipovich, SLC Mental Health Unit Social worker. Embedded with DPD to assist the officers with mental health crisis calls. She does the follow-up to prevent the MI clients from getting lost in the system and from going to jail as studies have shown is not appropriate for them. Riding with officers and attending training. CIT: A crisis intervention team and collaborative, hospital, jail, probation, SLC Attorney’s Office, DPD, SLC SW to avoid the use of force and to develop the trust of the subject. They have had a panel from Birch Tree (mental health stabilization center). She thinks there are 5 Duluth officers plus SLC deputies. She has access to the client history. Goal is to so short term case management to prevent repeat calls, hospital visits and access services. This is a pilot program. She has been with it since the end of June.

August Minutes delayed until next month due to technical problems.

Public Comment:

Rebecca Domagala – Chair of Human Rights Commission. Asked for statistics high/middle school East vs. Denfeld, race, sex, social economics and the school to prison pipeline. DC Clancy said she can get this information for her. Next meeting of HRC is Oct 14, 5 p.m. Clancy offered to have SRO Sgt available, hoped to have some CRB members there or other joint meeting.

Board member Reports:

Approved:

Doug Bowen-Bailey: Several citizen contacts to bring them together with police department.

Executive Committee:

Resignation of Katherine Eagle. Motion to accept, MSP. Van Nett/Davis. Bob Grytdahl sent it on to Mayor's office.

The CRB has two open positions. Doug Bowen-Bailey will contact Mayor Ness.

Family asked the CRB to look into a complaint. Ann Clancy was looking into this and gathering data. Revisit situation. New date needed.

Presentation Committee: Has not met.

Policy Review Committee: Made good progress and reviewed a section of the current complaint policy. Will not be meeting until after new software training. Renee Van Nett volunteered to join this committee.

Correspondence:

From person in jail – Doug Bowen-Bailey responded to this and included complaint form.

Woman (who called Grytdahl on Monday) today sent email to Bob Grytdahl. He sent copy to Doug Bowen-Bailey and the chief and sent her complaint form. She asked to talk to Chief. Bowen-Bailey commented about the process of sending the email with the complaint and then having to fill out form to make a complaint. Discussion with DC Clancy on the DPD need for the form for the contact data for follow up with citizens.
