

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
City of Duluth - Communications Office

411 West First Street, Duluth, Minnesota 55802
218-730-5230 | www.duluthmn.gov | Emily Larson, Mayor

For more information contact Pakou Ly, Public Information Coordinator 218-730-5309

DATE: 1/11/2016

SUBJECT: Northland Human Resource Professionals to Assist Job Seekers January 19

BY: Pakou Ly, Public Information Coordinator

Northland Human Resource Professionals to Assist Job Seekers January 19

[Duluth, MN] - The Duluth Workforce Center and the Northland Human Resource Association are partnering to help job seekers gain knowledge and tips to land their next dream job with local employers. The half day workshop will feature human resources professionals providing one-to-one assistance for resume building and conducting mock interviews on Tuesday, January 19, 2016 from 9 AM to 12:30 PM. A panel of experts will review do's and don't of job seeking. Employers will be present to talk to prospective applicants with some conducting interviews on site at 402 West First Street in downtown Duluth.

Participating Employers are:

Essentia (will be doing on-the-spot interviews for food service positions)

Whole Foods Co-op (hiring for new Denfeld store)

UDAC

AAR

Accend Services

Kelly Services

MN Veteran's Home Silver Bay

Woodland Hills

Job Corps

Black Bear Casino Resort

American Precision Avionics

City of Duluth

maurices

Innovative Services

Employers interested in participating can contact: Betsy Hill: 218-730-5228 or bhill@duluthmn.gov

Job seekers interested in registering for mock interview/resume critique call: WorkForce Center front desk at 218-302-8400

Sponsored by the Northland Human Resource Association and the Minnesota WorkForce Center – Duluth

If you require accommodation to fully participate in this event please call 218.302.8400

###