SUBJECT: MN Slip Bridge will be pinned open today, June 27

BY: Kate Van Daele, Public Information Officer

MN Slip Bridge will be pinned open today, June 27

[Duluth, MN] The Minnesota Slip Bridge will be pinned up today, June 27, and for part of the day tomorrow, June 28. A brake on the bridge is not releasing properly, which is the cause of the closure. Crews will be on-site Monday morning to evaluate the issue. Pedestrians can use the sidewalk along Harbor Drive to connect to the Baywalk and Canal Park as a detour.

The City of Duluth would like to apologize for any inconvenience that this may cause.
