City invites public to community Input Session for Hillside Sport Court Park on Wednesday, May 17 from 6:00 pm – 7:30 pm

[DULUTH, MN] The City of Duluth’s Parks and Recreation Division invites the public to an interactive community input session for upcoming park improvements to Hillside Sport Court. Public input is needed to help guide investment priorities and to better understand community needs and preferences for park improvements.

The community input session will be held on Wednesday, May 17 from 6:00 pm – 7:30 pm at Central Hillside Community Center, located at 12 E Fourth St.

Duluth Parks and Recreation will offer activities for children while parents and guardians attend the session. Children must be three years of age or older and parents must register their child in advance, as space is limited. Parents can register children for youth programming by calling the Parks and Recreation office at (218) 730-4300 or by emailing parks@duluthmn.gov with the child’s name and age.
