Hartley Park Stewardship Fest to be held November 11

[DULUTH, MN] The City of Duluth and Hartley Nature Center invite the public to the Hartley Park Stewardship Fest on November 11 from 9:00 am until 12:00 pm. The event will be held at Hartley Nature Center, which is located at 3001 Woodland Avenue.

Hartley Park is an important destination for recreation and a collection of valuable natural resources. Protecting these community resources requires a unified effort from many organizations. Stewardship Fest will celebrate the people and organizations that are helping to take care of Hartley Park for current and future generations. There will be opportunities to learn more about the groups doing conservation work in Hartley Park and across Duluth. More information about Stewardship Fest, including a list of partners, can be found at www.hartleynature.org.
