Duluth Parks and Recreation announces the 41st annual Music in the Park concert series

[DULUTH, MN] Duluth Parks and Recreation, along with their partners at Chester Bowl, announce the lineup of the 41st annual Music in the Park concert series. Concerts will take place Tuesday nights throughout the summer. This year, concerts will take place at Chester Park (1801 E. Skyline Pkwy.) for the first half of the summer and Lincoln Park (Lincoln Park Dr and Third St) for the second half of the summer. This free, family-friendly concert series features a variety of toe-tapping, engaging music on Tuesdays all throughout summer. Duluth Parks and Recreation would like to thank all of the bands who submitted applications to this year’s concert series. Concerts are from 6:30 pm until 8:00 pm all summer. This year will also include split performances by two bands at three of the shows. More information on the concert series can be found on our social media pages @DuluthParksMN or on our website: duluthmn.gov/parks
