Alcohol, Gambling and Tobacco Commission discussion: 3/2/11 Kathy Camps was present on behalf of the application. Ms. Camps explained that they are applying for a temporary liquor license to serve beer and wine out of one tent at the Blues Fest at Bayfront Park. To questioning from the Board, Ms. Camps replied that she had conferred with the police department and will have security officers working the event. She also explained the operation will run the same as they have done in the past with ID's being checked and using wrist bands to identify those over 21. To questioning from the commission, Ms. Camps replied that they serve alcohol until 9:30 p.m. and the music stops at 9:45 p.m. There being no further discussion, Mr. Birchland moved that THE APPLICATION OF NORTHLAND VIETNAM VETERANS ASSOC, BAYFRONT PARK, FOR A TEMPORARY ON SALE INTOXICATING LIQUOR LICENSE FOR AUGUST 12-14, 2011, WITH KATHERINE CAMPS, MANAGER, BE APPROVED, AND THE SAME BE RECOMMENDED TO THE CITY COUNCIL FOR APPROVAL. Mr. Donahue seconded the motion, and it was unanimously approved.
